- 1) Approval of Agenda and previous minutes: Julie, Julie
- 2) Declaration of conflict of interest: Melanie and Melissa are doing yard supervision at PRPS, Marie is working at Calvin Park
- 3) Principals report – attached
- 4) Hot lunch: No increase in number of orders

Marie contacted hot lunch program provider to request earlier reminders or multiple reminders, they said the current reminder setting is what their history has shown to be the happy medium.

Discuss in New Year – quantity of hot lunches provided to angels

- 5) Christmas Concert:

Voted to raffle off a set of two chairs as a second prize to the 50/50 draw – Agreed by all

Reminder to get the retail value of the donated silent auction items. Leave the silent auction open after the show.

Bake sale items suggest packages of 6 for $2. Have Liste bags beside bake good table.

- 6) Christmas Baskets:

12 families, $2000 roughly, adjusting for larger families

Non-perishable baskets go home Thursday the 20th. Will have students sort by food type prior for early donations, we will have council members to stay after evening show to sort remainder.

Next council meeting: January 14th @ 6:30pm
