Principal's Report

1. Health & Safety~ review of COVID protocols
2. Equity & Inclusion~ February is Black History Month. We will be learning about and celebrating some Black Kingstonians from yesterday and today.
3. Events~ I Read Canadian Day~ February 17th with a focus on stories celebrating diversity by Canadian Authors

~Les journees carnaval- Feb. 22nd~ March 12th (Mme. Hollinsworth, M. LeBlanc) Activity boxes that classes can sign up to take outside and use highlighting something traditional from carnival and/or winter in quebec.

4. Students' Council~ Valentine's Day acknowledged on Feb. 12th. We will not be exchanging Valentine's or celebrating with the sharing of food this year. Students' Council is asking students to create art and writing for the display case and the digital morning announcements. Students will be invited to wear Valentine colours. The Grade 8 students council will host a google meet for those classes that want to join in to show that we are thinking about each other even though we are apart.
5. Technology~ thank you for the 10 Chromebooks! An additional 10 Chromebooks were purchased by the school. All have been allocated to classrooms. Borrowed devices have all been returned.
6. Google Classrooms~ Will continued to be used as a communication tool for students and families in order to keep everyone connected should we need to pivot back to remote learning. A short survey will be coming out from the school in the spring asking for feedback about how to improve the experience.
7. Students' Wellness~ Big Emotions Workshops- SSC Maggie Farmer
8. Grade 8 to 9 Transitions
9. Term 1 Report Cards~ go home Feb. 17th
10. Trillium to Aspen Student Information System~ End of February
